

Photo: NASA, Map Data: Coordinated by Rita Riosbell

Researchers, staff and students at the Earth Institute work around the world across nine cross-cutting themes: water; climate and society; energy; urbanization; hazards and risk; global health; poverty; ecosystems health and monitoring; and food, ecology and nutrition. This map shows some of the places where we work.

